

Tom Soby

The Story of William Donaghy.

The William Donaghy memorial stone, which is situated, if you go along the drift lane that follows the East Dart, its on the other side of the river, or alternatively you can go along the track that goes up towards Hartyland House then towards Hartland Tor and there in amongst all the vegetation is this big rounded stone with an inscription on it.