

Lou Rich

Mr Stoye, the Headmaster.

He was a very kind man, you know, he'd never lose his temper, sometimes some of the children would be quite unruly, but he was allowed to use the cane back in those days, he used the cane over their hands, you know, make them stand in the corner and things like that, but he was always very kind, and Christmas time we used to have wonderful times down there, go and get a Christmas tree.