

Twin (Hector) and Mabel Cribbett

The Plymouth Blitz.

Twin: We used to go out over the top of the hill here and watch the bombing going on down in Plymouth, the flares and the search lights and all that sort of thing, and the fires.

Mabel: Yes, a few planes came down different places during the war, I can remember standing on the Town Hall steps one night, when we'd, I think there must have been a dance or something on, and we were stood out on the steps and you'd see the German planes going over, I suppose on their way to Plymouth.
