

Lou Rich

Good brought in by train.

Everything used to come up by rail for the Prison and then they used to come down with a horse and wagons or horse and carts to take it up the Prison, and all the coal used to come up by rail for the coalman, because it was a man called Crocker, was the coalman in Princetown at that time, and all the Prison coal used to come in by truck, so it was fairly busy.