

Freda Wilkinson

The medieval door.

That doorway there is very wide, the door durns [jambs] are very far apart and curved at the top, and that was were the cows came in, the cattle came in, and, you see they had wide horns and also the men would have brought the hay in to put in the tallet [hayloft].